

WSPBR 2026 BY-LAWS & RULES

Membership

Membership is open to any person who will be 35 years of age during the calendar year. A rider will participate in their age division only.

No rider will be able to participate until his/her membership paperwork is completed and turned in to the secretary and dues are paid. No exceptions.

All riders must obey and follow the rules of the WSPBR.

Membership may be denied, withdrawn completely, suspended, with or without cause, at any time by the WSPBR, at its sole and absolute discretion. Fines and other disciplinary measures may also be imposed for violation of any of the applicable membership rules or violation of terms and conditions governing a member's behavior or participation at any time.

Acceptance of your membership application by the WSPBR does not make you, and should not be construed as making you, an employee or partner of the WSPBR, or any other related entities.

Age Groups:

35 to 42

43 to 49

50 to 57

58 and over

Membership Dues

New membership dues are $200.00 per year and are due prior to the first draft of the first event you attend.

Consecutive year membership dues are $150.00 per year, must be consecutive to apply (no lapse of years).

Dues must be paid before a rider will be allowed to accrue points.

Bullfighters', judges, and stock contractors membership fees are $50.00 per year.

Non-compete membership fees are $50.00 per year, and non-compete members do not have voting privileges.

Promoters are responsible to have at least one WSPBR approved judge and one approved bullfighter that are current members.

Only Judges and Bullfighters with a membership will be eligible for the finals.

The board of directors may change the annual dues payable to the WSPBR by its members.

The board of directors, executive advisory board and lifetime members are excluded from membership fees.

Voting Rights

All paid members, competing, executive advisory board, and/or board over 18 years of age shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the entire membership. (Finals Voting Excluded-see finals section of bylaws)

Nominations for officers and directors will be accepted August 1st through September 17th of the voting year. The nomination will be in writing and turned in to the secretary. The officers and directors will hold a two-year term. No stock contractor may run for a board position due to conflict of interest per 501(c)(3) laws and regulation.

At the general membership meeting for the WSPBR members attending the finals, during the election year, the members will sign in and receive their voting ballots with the names of the nominated. Each nominated individual will have the opportunity to speak on their behalf for the position they were nominated for. No ballots will be re-issued. Only voting members will be allowed in the meeting.

A director may be released by two-thirds of the vote by the board of directors. They will not be eligible to run in the future.

Termination of Membership

The board of directors, by affirmative vote of two-thirds of all members of the board, may disqualify, suspend, or terminate a member for cause after an appropriate hearing.

If any member disobeys any rules or regulations, he/she can be fined, disqualified or his/her membership can be terminated.

If any member is fined three times for any offense, his/her membership will be terminated indefinitely. (This excludes turn out fines.)

In some cases, the member can be terminated immediately with no exceptions.

Harassment of any member, judge, stock contractor or production producer can result in disqualification, suspension or termination.

Reinstatement

Upon written request, signed by a former member and filed with the secretary, the board of directors may, by affirmative vote of two-thirds of members of the board, reinstate such former members on such terms as the board of directors may deem appropriate.

No one with a lifetime ban may apply for reinstatement.

Before the board can consider reinstatement, all unpaid dues, fees, fines or other money owed by the former member must be paid in full.

New Business

All new business must be brought to the existing board of directors to be reviewed before going to general membership. Members using any WSPBR social media platforms to attempt to circumvent the board for rule changes may be fined.

Membership Cards

Each member, upon payment of dues, shall receive a membership card. This card will show the member's name and membership number and should be retained by the member. In some cases, it will be mailed to the member. Every member should always have a membership card available, as it may be required for admittance to rodeos, etc.

Scheduling Events

All New events will incur a $100.00 sanction fee.

The minimum for added money is $500.00

All events must be approved by the board of directors.

There must be a minimum of fifteen (15) members entered, including permit riders, for it to be a WSPBR sanctioned event.

The promoter is responsible for stock, Judges, Bullfighters and secretary overpayment.

Double Points

The Roger Crouch, Les Hood and 1 Misc (Memorial /Benefit) will be allowed per year.

Entry Fees

Entry fees are $100.00 per event.

In the event you elect not to compete, after your fees are paid and chip has been drawn, you will not be refunded your entry fee, nor will you receive any points towards your total year end points.

A $50.00 check fee will be assessed with any returned check. A rider with a returned check will not be able to compete until the check and all the fees are paid. After a second returned check, the rider will be required to pay by cash ONLY for the remainder of the year. If a rider pays fees by check, that rider is responsible no matter who writes the check.

There will be no gate fee for competing members plus one.

Finals & Year End Awards

To be able to compete at the finals:

A member must compete (compete is defined as crossing the plane), in a total of ten events in order to qualify for the finals. No Exceptions

Qualified injured: Will be determined by the board of directors for qualification and awards.

Finals awards will be based upon finals entry only.

In the case of ties, awards will be determined by points, amount of money won, and the number of events entered.

If a military member of the WSPBR gets deployed (orders verification required), there will not be a minimum show requirement to qualify for the finals.

The finals entry fee is $300.00. The first payment of $100.00 will be due by April 4, 2026. The second payment of $100.00 will be due by June 6, 2026., the third payment due August 29, 2026 If a new member starts after July 15th.

The final fees will be due August 29, 2026 No fees will be accepted after September 6th-NO EXCEPTIONS.

If payment of Finals $300.00 has been paid, no cash refund will be refunded for any reason. Rider will receive Jacket and finals buckle as of close of year end points.

Amendments to By-Laws

These by-laws may be altered, amended or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted by a majority vote from the board of directors at any regular or special meeting.

Stock Contractor

Each stock contractor is responsible to bring one person to work the back pens.

Hot flanks are banned

WSPBR Rules

General

Any person becoming a member of this association shall comply with all its rules and by-laws and shall be bound by the same.

You must enter by Tuesday at 5:00 pm before the event. Include full name, hometown, bull rating, and age group. The final and out of state events may require an earlier entry.

You must draw out or change bull level by Thursday at 5:00 before the event; if not, there will be a $50.00 fine. Events will be listed on the WSPBR Facebook announcement page and on the website schedule.

Members must pay current dues and all outstanding debts and or fines to WSPBR before being allowed to participate in any event approved by the association.

Riders must be on hand and ready to compete when it's their turn. If the rider is not there, stock will be turned out. A $50 no show / no call fine will be assessed. No stock shall be brought back after turning out.

The stock turned out can be used for re-rides at contractors' discretion.

The Board of Directors will approve all stock. If a Board member sees any reason for taking a certain bull out of the draw, it will be at the Board of Directors discretion.

The Bulls must be tipped to the size of a fifty-cent piece.

A protective vest is required for any competing member or permit rider. If a protective vest is not worn, the rider will be disqualified from the event with no refund.

A helmet and vest are required for anyone under the age of 18. If not worn the rider will be disqualified from the event with no refund. Per state law Title 9 Subtitle A chapter 768.001.

Under Texas Law (Chapter 87, Civil Practice and Remedies Code), a farm animal professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in farm animal activities resulting from the inherent risks of farm animal activities.

The judge's decisions are final as long as they do not overrule WSPBR by-laws or rules.

Permit riders will be required to pay a $100.00 entry fee plus a $25.00 permit fee. If you ride on a permit, you lose your consecutive membership. Your fees will then be $200.00 when you buy your membership.

A permit rider will not accumulate points and the first $200 won will be applied to membership fees. No exceptions. The event that the rider places and fills their card, at that one event will count towards the end of season points and qualification.

Code of Conduct

All members of the WSPBR will always conduct themselves in an exemplary manner representing the WSPBR in a positive manner in and out of the arena.

Anytime a WSPBR member speaks of or to other members, judges, stock contractors, etc. in a negative manner they will be subject to a fine or (revoke of membership).

Dress code is enforced one hour before any event.

Alcohol or profanity is not permitted at any church or school venue.

No alcohol is allowed in the arena or behind the chutes before or during any event.

Fighting, quarreling, taunting, intimidation, cockiness, rudeness, whining, etc. are not acceptable. You are expected to conduct yourself as an adult and abide by the rules of the event as set by the producer / promoter.

When the contestant appears to not be in his normal faculties or good health, the contestant will not be allowed to participate in the event, in assessment by two board members.

The WSPBR has a zero-tolerance policy for any illegal substance possession or usage. Members or permit riders will be automatically terminated without any refunds.

An event will be over at the producer's discretion.

Please see the fines list.

The Chute

Time starts – when any part of the bull breaks the plane of the gate.

Time stops – when the rider's hand is no longer touching the bull rope for 7 seconds, whichever comes first.

A rider must be ready when it comes his turn. No more than three hands pulling a bull rope will be allowed. The first offense will be a verbal warning, a second offense will result in a $500.00 fine.

A rider must make two attempts to get out on the bull, if not able, the rider will receive a re-ride of the same level of bull.

Rider shall be disqualified for any of the following offenses:

- If the rider gets bucked off.

- If the rider's free hand or arm touches the bull, or any other object intentionally. If the rider's free arm comes into contact while making a bull riding move, he/she will not be disqualified. This rule will be interpreted by the judges.

- If spurs are hooked in the bull rope when a rider leaves the chute.

- Using sharp spurs or placing spurs or chaps under the rope when the rope is being tightened.

- If a bull is cut, the rider's spurs are to be checked by two board members. The stock contractor may be present.

Re-Ride

If the bull fouls the chute coming out or if the bull falls, a re-ride option will be available for all bull levels.

The rider does not have to declare himself on a foul, it will be at the judge's discretion.

If the flank rope comes off during the ride, the contestant must complete the ride up until the flank comes off for a re-ride to be awarded.

If a bull leaves the chute without a flank, it will be an automatic re-ride.

If a bull stops, the bullfighters will not restart the bull. If the rider completes the 7 second ride, a re-ride option will be offered. If the rider bucks off, he/she will not be offered a re-ride.

If a low-end bull stops, the contestant will not be eligible for a re-ride.

If the rider accepts the re-ride, the rider must take it. If not, the rider will receive no score.

The re-ride bull must be the same level as the original bull drafted.

Re-ride must be taken in the same performance.

If a high or medium rated bull does not perform to its rating, the rider will be offered a re-ride of the same rating.

A low rider is only eligible for a re-ride if the rider is fouled on the gate, the flank comes off or the bull falls to knees or completely down.

The bull rider has the option of all bulls with a remaining out in his chosen level. All bulls with a remaining out are eligible as re-rides in their level. The rider may get the same bull back at the discretion of the contractor.

The Arena

Bull rider, member or contract help may be disqualified and fined to be determined by a majority vote of the board of directors for any of the following offenses during an event:

Being under the influence of alcohol or narcotics in the arena or behind the chutes.

Not wearing western hat or long sleeve shirt with collar in the arena or behind the chute.

Riders not wearing western hat or helmet, boots, protective vest and long sleeve shirt with collar will be disqualified with no refund. (Per previously noted state law, anyone under 18 years of age must wear a helmet.)

Dress code may be waived due to inclement weather by the board or producer. The rider must still wear boots, jeans, a short-sleeved shirt and protective vest.

No show boating on the back of a bull. If you are caught showboating, the score will be deducted at the discretion of the judges.

No mistreatment of stock in or out of the arena.

See fines list
